How the Course Was Developed: Course Author and Contributors

The Financial Management *Purchasing course has traditionally been a certificate/certification course offered in a face-to-face environment only to local employees from the State of Georgia. This course is created as a joint effort between the University of Georgia Carl Vinson Institute of Government and the University of Georgia Center for Continuing Education.

Beth Horacek, Faculty with the University of Georgia, Carl Vinson Institute of Government provides financial management training for schools, state and local government officials and personnel. Before joining the Institute of Government in 2017, Beth worked in financial management for local governments in Georgia over the previous 15 years. Beth is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Public Financial Officer and holds a MBA from the University of West Georgia and BBA from the University of Georgia with a major in Accounting.

This course was created and administered by the Department of Web Instructional Development, and the Department of Special Projects and Curriculum Development, respectively, at the University of Georgia Center for Continuing Education.
