How the Course Was Developed: Course Authors and Contributors

Internal Controls: Accounts Receivable and Cash Receipts was created as a joint effort between the University of Georgia Carl Vinson Institute of Government and the University of Georgia Center for Continuing Education.

Chris Pike, Finance Director for the City of Dunwoody, Georgia, provided the latest content updates for the Internal Controls: Accounts Receivable and Cash Receipts course.

Beth Horacek, Public Service faculty at the Vinson Institute, completed additional editing for the course. Beth, a Certified Public Accountant with a Master of Business Administration degree, instructs financial management courses in state and local government financial management certificate/certification programs. In addition, Beth has over 15 years' experience working in local governments as both a controller and finance director prior to joining the institute.

This course was created and administered by the Departments of Web Instructional Development and Special Projects & Curriculum Development respectively, at the University of Georgia Center for Continuing Education.
