How much time will I need to devote to study?

Former students have reported spending approximately one study hour per lesson.

Can I move about the course and study the lessons in any order or must I follow the lessons in numerical order?

You must begin with lesson 1 and progress through each lesson as presented. Your successful completion of the exercises and/or quizzes at the conclusion of each lesson will allow you to progress (and access the online assessment tools) to the next lesson. Once you have successfully completed all of the lessons, you will have access to the final online course examination.

Can I enroll/purchase the lessons separately?

In order to earn credit for the course and earn your CEU or CPE, the courses must be taken in its entirety. The lessons in this course are not sold separately.

Do I have to purchase the textbooks?

No. Textbooks are not required to complete this course. Everything you need is built into the online course.

Where do I go to take the final examination?

The exam is a part of the online course. Once you have completed all of the lessons and case study/practice exercises, you will have access to the online exam.

How long do I have to take the final examination and what grade is considered passing?

You will have 60 minutes to complete the final examination for Internal Controls: Accounts Receivable and Cash Receipts. Once you have completed the exam, saved and submitted your answers, you will receive immediate notification of your exam grade. A passing grade of no less than 70% is required. If you do not receive a grade of 70% or higher, you are eligible to take the examination one additional time at no additional cost. The questions in the timed exam are selected from a test bank and each exam is different.

Are there previous tests available for review?

Self-tests, interactive exercises, and end-of-lesson quizzes are included in the online course and provide all the review necessary to successfully complete the final examination.

How long does it take to learn the results of each exam?

The examinations are graded online and you will receive immediate results. The University will officially notify of your course outcome within four weeks of your exam date via email.

Can I transfer my course registration to another student?

During the first 10 days of your course, if you have not completed any course work, you may opt for a one-time transfer of your enrollment to another student for a fee of $50. The new student (i.e., substitute) would have one month from the transfer date to complete the course. Written requests should be sent to PPD at student@georgiacenter.uga.edu.

What is the cancellation/refund policy for individual enrollments?

The Georgia Center will gladly issue full refunds for cancellations received in writing prior to the release of course access information. You may cancel your enrollment at any time during the course and receive a refund less a $50 administrative fee, provided that you have not accessed the online course material at all. During the first 10 days of your course, if you have not completed any course work, you may opt for a one-time transfer of your enrollment to another student for a fee of $50; the new student (i.e., substitute) would have one month from the transfer date to complete the course. ### What is “the Green Book?”

The U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) publishes Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, known as the “Green Book.” It sets the standards for an effective internal control system for federal agencies. Many state, local, and quasi-governmental entities, as well as not-for-profit organizations, have adopted the Green Book as their framework for an internal control system.

What is “COSO?”

The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) guides organizations on enterprise risk management, internal control and fraud deterrence. COSO publishes the Internal Control – Integrated Framework, known as the “COSO” model. COSO’s framework for internal control is widely used by publicly-held companies required to comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, as well as many other private enterprises that receive federal awards.

How does the “Internal Controls four-course Certificate Course” differ from the “Internal Control” series offered by UGA?

The Internal Control course focuses on the integrated framework of internal control that is relevant to an entire entity, as well as its divisions, operating units, functions and subsidiaries.

The four course certificate course is devoted to internal controls for specific accounting processes. For example, in Internal Controls: Payroll, students learn strong internal controls for payroll, and see how these controls relate to the five interrelated components of effective internal control system.

- Internal Controls: Accounts Payable and Cash Disbursements
- Internal Controls: Accounts Receivable and Cash Receipts
- Internal Controls: Capital Assets
- Internal Controls: Payroll
