"I have been able to increase my GMAT score from a 470 (first practice test score) to a 640 (official test score). I really appreciate all the advice, tutoring, and test strategies you shared with me. I know I could not have gotten a score like this without taking your class. Thanks again for everything!!!"

The University of Georgia GMAT preparation program provides a thorough review of all tested math and verbal skills. Case studies involving real test questions help to reinforce the connection between the various skills and the ways they are tested on the GMAT. The program consists of 24 hours of classroom instruction from an experienced instructor, together with additional practice problems, sample tests, and skill review exercise.

Expert Instructors: University Test Prep uses only highly trained test prep instructors. Our experienced instructors have aced the GMAT and care about helping you achieve your goal.

Proven Strategies: University Test Prep's program was developed by exam prep experts who have years of experience writing exam questions and preparing students for success.
